

THE SACRAMENTO COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION
ENVIRONMENTAL LAW SECTION
AND
THE STATE BAR OF CALIFORNIA
ENVIRONMENTAL LAW SECTION

Present, at 11:45 a.m. on FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 2005, at THE FIREHOUSE RESTAURANT, 1112 Second Street, Old Sacramento.

Speaker: Mayor Jerry Brown, City of Oakland

Topic: “From Oakland and Beyond: The Changing Face of California’s Cities”

PLEASE STATE YOUR LUNCHEON ENTRÉE CHOICE:

Petit Beef Tenderloin _ Herb Roasted Chicken _
Pacific Northwest Salmon _
Chocolate Mousse for Dessert

Cost: $20.00 for members of the Environmental Law Sections
 $22.00 for nonmembers $25.00 after January 18, 2005

DEADLINE TO RESERVE: January 18, 2005

Mail or deliver a check payable to the “Environmental Law Section” to William L. Owens, 400 Capitol Mall, Suite 1100, Sacramento, CA 95814. Must be received by January 18, 2005. Because the Section is charged for cancellations, we regret that reservations are nonrefundable.
0.75 hours MCLE credit pending.

Name(s) of Attendee(s): _____ Amt. Enclosed: _____

SPECIAL AFTERNOON PROGRAMS

1:45 to 2:30: “The Direction of California Agriculture in the Face of Urban Development, Industry Consolidation, and Overseas Competition.” Richard Rominger, University of California Regent, American Farmland Trust Trustee, Former Director, California Department of Food and Agriculture, Former Deputy Secretary, U.S. Department of Agriculture (.75 MCLE credit pending)

2:45 to 4:00: “Where Are We Going And Where Have We Been: A Look At Recent Environmental Legislation In California.” Gary Lucks, Beyond Compliance (1.25 MCLE credit pending)

The afternoon programs are free of charge, and pre-registration is not required. Seating will be limited. Program will be held at the Stanley Mosk Library and Courts Building (Court of Appeal), 914 Capitol Mall, Room 500, Sacramento. Any questions, please contact: Ed Bernard, 415.538.2458, edward.bernard@calbar.ca.gov; or Bill Owens 916.558.6151, wlowens@cal.net.

WILLIAM L. OWENS
ATTORNEY & MEDIATOR
400 Capitol Mall, Suite 1100
Sacramento, California 95814
